

AGENDA

Event on Biodiversity in Cocoa Cultivation: Landscape Approaches & Engagement

Monday, 10.11.2025 | 14:00-16:00

Online via Microsoft Teams

Time	Programme	Speaker
14:00	Welcome	Dr. Annette Cerulli-Harms ConPolicy
14:05	Opening Words	Julian Andersen GIZ
14:10	The role of landscape approaches for biodiversity protection and conservation
	1) Landscape engagement in the cocoa sector with a focus on Colombia – Cocoa, Forest & Peace Initiative	1) Wendy Arenas Alisos
	2) National approach on deforestation-free production in Ecuador	2) Kathya Ortiz PPR / UNDP Karina Amaluís PPR / UNDP
15:00	Concrete solutions to preserve biodiversity
	3) Part 1: Cocoa Diversity Tool: how to improve sustainability of cacao farms in Latin America	3) Evert Thomas Cacao diversity tool Alliance Biodiversity International - CIAT
	Part 2: Agroecological regenerative cocoa in Colombia, Peru, Ecuador	Yovita Ivanova Cacao diversity tool Alliance Biodiversity International - CIAT
15:30	Analysing and understanding risks along the value chain by using the Biodiversity Risk Filter (BRF)
	4) Going through the Biodiversity Risk Filter with an example of a virtual cocoa company	4) Janosch Birkert WWF Germany Pius Stuchtey WWF Germany
15:55	Concluding Remarks and Outlook	Dr. Annette Cerulli-Harms ConPolicy
16:00	Closing of the Event

Moderation: Dr. Annette Cerulli-Harms

This event will be held in English.

On behalf of Federal Ministry

for Economic Cooperation and Development

Implemented by

Deutsche Gesellschaft
für Internationale
Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH

